Extracurricular Organization Web Pages

Extracurricular Organizations and recognized non-school groups may establish web pages or use social networking sites as communication tools only upon approval of the parent. All material presented on the Web page must relate specifically to organization activities and include only student-produced material. No personally identifiable information regarding a student may be published without written permission from the student's parent. The sponsor of the organization will be responsible for compliance with District rules for maintaining the Web page, including obtaining and maintaining records that reflect parental consent for those students involved. Web pages of extracurricular organization must include the following notice: This is a student extracurricular organization Web page. "Opinions expressed on this page shall not be attributed to the District." Any links from the Web page of an extracurricular organization to sites outside the District's computer system must receive approval from the District Webmaster.
